

Inez Hahn

Inez Hahn, born Inez Eugenia Thomas, passed into her eternal rest on Tuesday, December 31, 2019. She was born in Lebanon, Indiana on October 4, 1926. She was born to Joseph and Olive Thomas and arrived a few minutes after her twin sister Imogene! She was raised in Parke County, Indiana and graduated from Union Township High School. Upon graduation she moved to Indianapolis to work. It was there she met a young soldier, Lloyd Johnson. They continued their courtship after he was shipped to Belgium with the 106th Infantry Division in 1944. After the end of the war, Inez and Lloyd were married. They settled briefly in Indiana where their son Tom was born. In 1948 they relocated to the Upper Peninsula of Michigan to Lloyd's hometown of Wakefield. It was in Michigan where they welcomed two daughters, Carol and Melanie. Inez often referred to those years in Michigan as some of the happiest years of her life. In the early 1960s Inez and Lloyd relocated to Arizona. They lived for a time in both Morenci and Globe. In 1966 Tucson became the family's home. Tucson was to be Inez's home until her passing. She grew to love the Southwest and every day she loved looking at the Mountains surrounding her adopted hometown of Tucson. Inez was a social, vivacious, gregarious, and active person, she thoroughly enjoyed managing the jewelry department at Montgomery Wards at El Con until her retirement. Inez enjoyed many friendships and her family relationships. She was an avid gardener, but probably her favorite role was that of being Grandma. In 1976 she married Henry Hahn which blessed her with a step son, daughter-in-law, and four additional grandchildren. Inez has been a member of Holy Cross Lutheran Church since 1966. Her faith and church membership brought her strength and joy throughout her life. She always knew she was a beloved and redeemed child of God and in her last few months she was comforted by the thought of going home to heaven. Inez was preceded in death by her parents Joseph and Olive Thomas, her husband Henry Hahn, her brothers Joe Thomas, and Robert Thomas, her sisters Lucile McClure, and Imogene Martin, her first husband Lloyd Johnson and her stepson William Tierney. She is survived and lovingly remembered by her children; Tom Johnson (Carol,) Carol Trudgen (Craig,) Melanie Monier (Mark,) and daughter-in-law Joan Tierney. She is also survived by her adoring grandchildren; Erica McNeal (Ryan,) Alissa Krusoe (Rob,) April George (Patrick,) Adam Buben, Andrea Monier, Amy Monier, Bill Tierney, Liz Silverman (Phill,) Kate Fermoyle (Chris,) Robert Tierney (Oxana.) Fondly remembering her as G.G. are her great grandchildren; Daisy and Clara Krusoe, Kaylee George, Alyse and Jesse Silverman, Owen and Carter Fermoyle, and Faye and Zoe Tierney. If so desired a memorial gift may be made to The Holy Cross Lutheran Church Ministry Expansion Fund.

Invocation: Order for Christian Funeral (Page 144)

Hymn: Be Still, My Soul (CW 415)

Scripture Readings:

Psalm 121

I lift up my eyes to the hills— where does my help come from? ² My help comes from the Lord, the Maker of heaven and earth. ³ He will not let your foot slip— he who watches over you will not slumber; ⁴ indeed, he who watches over Israel will neither slumber nor sleep. ⁵ The Lord watches over you— the Lord is your shade at your right hand; ⁶ the sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon by night. ⁷ The Lord will keep you from all harm— he will watch over your life; ⁸ the Lord will watch over your coming and going both now and forevermore.

Hymn: On Eagles Wings (CW 440)

Philippians 4:4–13

Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! ⁵ Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. ⁶ Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. ⁷ And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. ⁸ Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy— think about such things. ⁹ Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me—put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with you. ¹⁰ I rejoice greatly in the Lord that at last you have renewed your concern for me. Indeed, you have been concerned, but you had no opportunity to show it. ¹¹ I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. ¹² I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. ¹³ I can do everything through him who gives me strength.
